Three Film Documentaries About Seafood In New Jersey

▸ Co-produced by:

The New Jersey Department of Agriculture, Division of Rural Resources and New Jersey Network.

GIANTS OF THE DEEP

Giants of the Deep offers a behind-the-scenes view of the life of the long-line fisherman out of Barnegat Light, New Jersey. Follow the crew of the "Karen L" on their two-week voyage in search of swordfish, shark and tuna. (30 minutes)

NEW JERSEY SEAFOOD

This film explores the other garden of the Garden State—the bounty from the sea. From harvest, to processing, marketing and finally to the table, this is the story of New Jersey fresh fish and seafood. (30 minutes)

A SEAFOOD SAMPLER

Host, Peter Pratt, a veteran chef, takes the viewer on a seafood culinary adventure through New Jersey with easy-to-do at home instructions and recipes. (30 minutes)
