

Love

Love conquers,
All evils.

Love conquers,
Racism.

Love conquers,
Pain.

Love conquers,
Bias.

When I'm with you,
The world is silent—
Clean and pure,
Even in,
A world filled with evils
Always trying to drive us apart.
But I won't let this evil destroy us.

Prejudice,
Brings violence.
Prejudice,
Destroys relationships.
Prejudice,
Poisons minds.
Prejudice,
Is still as alive as it was years ago.

I'm tired.
Tired of,
Stereotyping.
Tired of,
Rude looks.
Tired of,
Being bullied.
Aren't I human?
Aren't I free to love?
I'm tired.
But when it all becomes too much,
You make the pain go away.

It's a world,
In need of freedom.
No one should be judged,
For their skin color,

For their religion,
For their sexuality.

It's a world in need—
Of protection
And
Of love.
