

E CHILD CARE

e-Child Care Launch Event

December 17, 2010

NJ Division of Family Development (DFD) Director Jeanette Page-Hawkins welcomes attendees to the meeting announcing the development of e-Child Care -- New Jersey's automated time and attendance tracking system.

Walter Olfson, project manager with Affiliated Computer Services (ACS) – the vendor developing e-Child Care – defines who the stakeholders are to this new information system.

DFD Director Jeanette Page-Hawkins (left) talks with Walter K. Frye of The Leaguers Head Start program and Lisa Henley, who headed up Oklahoma's e-Child Care project and now works for Affiliated Computer Services (ACS), the vendor who is developing New Jersey's e-Child Care system.
